A New Series of Probate Reports,
CONTAINING THE CREAM OF PROBATE LAW.

Each volume gives about 100 Recent Cases (in full) from the Courts of the different States on all matters pertaining to the Law of Wills and the Administration of the Estate of Deceased Persons, etc.

Probate Reports Annotated,

(In continuation of the AMERICAN PROBATE REPORTS, 8 vols.).

VOLUME I NOW READY.

Comprising Recent Cases of General Value Decided in the Courts of the Several States on Points of Probate Law.

With Extended Notes and References. By FRANK S. RICE, Esq.

Author of "Civil and Criminal Evidence," "Law of Real Property," and "American Probate Law."

The plan of this new Series of Reports is to give in an annual volume (only one a year) Contemporaneous or Recent Decisions of the Courts of the different States of the Union upon all matters cognizable in Probate and Surrogate Courts.

For Judges and practitioners in Probate, Surrogate, and other Courts in every State these volumes will be indispensable, as presenting in its latest phases the most important points of Probate Law.

Some of the Subjects covered by the Cases in these Volumes: Probate and Construction of Wills and Codicils; Foreign Probate; Lost Wills; Powers, Duties, and Liabilities of Executors, Administrators, Guardians, and Testamentary Trustees—including Investments, Collection of Debts, Compounding Claims, Interest, etc.—Testamentary Capacity; Formalities of Execution and Revocation of Wills; DEVISES, and their construction; LEGACIES, their Vesting, Payment, Abatement, Satisfaction and Ademption. EVIDENCE. Powers, Trusts, Perpetuities, etc., etc.

THE NOTES AND REFERENCES BY THE EDITOR form an important and valuable feature of these volumes. After many of the principal Cases will be found a very full collection of Notes and References to earlier authorities. Also the decisions of the Courts of different States on cognate topics are collected and collated so as to present any diversity of judicial opinion on the subject under discussion.

VOL. I. of the PROBATE REPORTS ANNOTATED, is a handsome octavo of about 800 pages. Price $5.50 net, or $5.75 delivered on receipt of price.

BEACH ON INJUNCTIONS, 1895.

Commentaries on The Law of Injunctions, as Determined by the Courts and Statutes of England and the United States.

By CHARLES F. BEACH, JR.,

Author of "Equity Jurisprudence" and "Practice," "Public Corporations," "Negligence," etc.

Two Volumes, $12.00 Net.

"In this treatise on Injunctions Mr. Beach has given the profession a very useful and practical book, one which will prove of great aid and assistance. The law as it is to-day is fully and carefully stated and the citations are numerous and to the point.—The Green Bag.

"The arrangement of the work is logical, the statements of the law clear and positive, the discussion of principle carried out in full detail."—The American Law Register and Review.

PINGREY ON REAL PROPERTY, 1895.

A Modern, Comprehensive and Exhaustive Treatise on the Law of Real Property.

By DARIUS H. PINGREY, LL.D.,

Author of "Real Estate Mortgages," etc.

TWO LARGE VOLUMES, $12.00 NET.

"The work has been constructed on modern lines, and is a complete and practical treatise on the subject, serving at one and the same time the wants of the student and the practitioner. You are quite right in supposing that the law of real property has been essentially modified in this country, and it must be a great satisfaction to the profession to find a book which brings down the American decisions and the doctrines which they establish completely to date."—Hon. John F. Dillon, New York City.

"The work is received. I am very much surprised at its scope and magnitude. It is a monument of research and appears to include almost every phase of real estate law from the earliest times down to the present. No work of the kind could possibly be produced without years of study and patient investigation. Such a work as this is a credit not only to the author, but to the age in which we live, and I have no doubt it will be greatly appreciated by any lawyer who has any occasion to turn his attention to real estate law. It is deserving of the widest publicity and use."—Judge Elliott Anthony, Chicago.

"I have carefully examined your treatise on Real Property. Great ability and care are evinced in its preparation. It is an admirable work and will prove invaluable to the profession."—Vice-President Stevenson, Vice-President's Chamber, Washington, D. C.

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & CO.'S

NEW BOOKS.

THE CAMBRIDGE LOWELL.

Complete Poetical Works of JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL. Cambridge Edition.

Uniform with the Cambridge Editions of Longfellow, Whittier, Holmes and Browning. From new plates, large type, on opaque paper, and attractively bound. With a Biographical Sketch, Notes, Indexes, a fine new portrait, and an engraved title-page with a vignette of Lowell's home, Elmwood. Large crown, 8vo., gilt top, $2.00; half calf, gilt top, $3.50; tree calf or full levant, $5.50.

The first complete edition of Lowell's poems in a single volume. Both in the character of the poetry and the mechanical execution of the book, it is of remarkable excellence.

THE MYCENÆAN AGE.

A Study of the Monuments and Culture of Pre-Homeric Greece. By Dr. CHRESTOS TSOUNTAS, Ephor of Antiquities and Director of Excavations at Mycenæ, and J. IRVING MANATT, Ph.D., LL.D., Professor in Brown University. With an Introduction by Dr. WILHELM DÖRPFELD. With a map, plans, tables, and over 150 illustrations, including many full-page plates. 1 vol., large 8vo, bound very handsomely, $6.00.

This important book offers a reasonably complete survey of Mycenaean culture, and registers the most significant results of Mycenaean research down to the present time. Its illustrations offer the reader and student just the apparatus needed to vivify their appreciation of primitive Greek life and art. An introduction by Dr. Dörpfeld, the eminent discoverer of Mycenaean Troy, adds to the value of the work, which takes rank with the great archaeological works of Dr. Schliemann, and Lanciani.

MEMORIES OF HAWTHORNE.

By his daughter, ROSE HAWTHORNE LATHROP. With a new portrait of Hawthorne. Crown, 8vo, gilt top, $2.00.

Every addition to our knowledge of Hawthorne is peculiarly welcome. His daughter in this book gives numerous glimpses of him, especially as a father, which will be very gratifying. Her sketches cover the family life in Salem, Lenox, and Concord; the term of Hawthorne's residence in Liverpool as United States Consul, from 1853 to 1858; his years of travel in France and Italy, 1858-1860; and his last years in Concord, 1860-1864.

THE LIQUOR PROBLEM.

In its Legislative Aspect. Embodying the results of investigations made by Dr. FREDERIC H. WINES and JOHN KOREN, Esq., under the direction of Pres. Chas. W. Eliot, Pres. Seth Low, and James C. Carter, Esq., a sub-committee of the Committee of Fifty to Investigate the Drink Problem. With maps. 12mo, $1.25.

A work of great importance, giving the results of a very careful investigation of the working of prohibitory and license laws of various kinds in Maine, Iowa, South Carolina, Massachusetts, Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Missouri.

Summer Law Book Notes.

RECREATION.—The Green Bag offers the best reading for a judge's, or lawyer's, or law student's, leisure hours. It is an illustrated monthly; single numbers, 50 cents; annual subscription, $4.00; sets of eight bound volumes (a treasure-house of legal history, biography, anecdote, and portraiture), $40.00.

THE ORDER OF THE COIF.—By Pulling (Cloth, $3.00), is an interesting account of the old customs of the English bar.

BOUVIER.—The new edition of Bouvier's Law Dictionary has been delayed, because of the unusually thorough work which is being done by the editor, Francis Rawle, of Philadelphia. The two volumes ($12.00) will be ready in September or October. Advanced orders already received, indicate that this standard book retains its reputation as the best law dictionary for practical use.

SELECTED CASES.—As the series of English Ruling Cases progresses, it impresses subscribers more and more as being the most useful set of selected cases for a judge or a lawyer in good practice. It differs from other series in grouping the cases under subjects, with separate English and American notes under each subject, thus presenting the law very much as it has to be used in court or in investigation. Eleven volumes, out of the thirty constituting the set, are now published, delivered at $5.75 per volume.

EVIDENCE.—The newest work on Evidence, and the one which discusses doubtful points most clearly and thoroughly, is Chamberlayne's edition of Taylor on Evidence (3 Volumes, $12.00). If you want a work on Evidence, do not buy until you have examined this edition of Taylor's. Its low price (as well as its merits), commends it to lawyers.

CONFLICT OF LAWS.—Dicey on the Conflict of Laws; with American notes by Moore, supersedes the older books and supplies a modern and authoritative treatment of this important topic ($6.50).

ENGLISH LAW.—For libraries, or lawyers who want to study the principles of the Common Law, "The New Abridgement of English Law" will be of great interest. There are to be twelve volumes, of which two ($6.00 per volume) are now ready.

The Place to Buy Law Books.

Students' Books a Specialty. A student's book should help the student to understand the principles that govern a special subject, and should show him how to get at the details of any branch of it when he wants to go further into it. To put all the details of applying the law into a book of principles means inevitable confusion for the student.

The Hornbook Series is a series of text-books on every branch of the law, so admirably arranged for presenting a clear outline of a subject that they have been adopted in over seventy law schools as the basis of study. That is a practical indorsement. They are full-sized octavo text books, though, owing to their wide circulation, they are sold at a lower price than other text books. Send for descriptive circular.

The Best Law Dictionary—Black's.

Law school professors, who want the best, and know what the best is, recommend Black's Law Dictionary. It includes more strictly dictionary matter than any other law dictionary published. Send for descriptive circular.

Selected Cases for Students in various branches.

We carry a complete stock of new and second-hand law books, and will send catalogues and quote prices on request.

Anderson's Law Dictionary.

Defines, explains, and applies at length, Words, Maxims, and Principles upon the basis of 30,600 authorities (Cases by names and years), the conclusions of the Highest Courts and the ablest Law Writers.

"Has a great many features which make it the best dictionary."
—EX-CHIEF JUSTICE AGNEW, Pa.

"By far the best."—HON. T. J. FREEMAN, Tenn. Sup. Ct.

"Accurate, comprehensive, of great service."—CHIEF JUSTICE PAXON, Pa.

"Excellent, well arranged, comprehensive, useful."—HON. SAMUEL BLATCHFORD, U. S. Sup. Ct.

"Care, accuracy, thoroughness, characterize every page."—JAMES L. HIGH, Illinois.

"I cannot speak too highly of it."—HON. SEYMOUR D. THOMPSON, Mo.

"A great advance upon any previous work."—JUDGE W. K. TOWNSEND, Yale Law School.

"Easily the most valuable."—PROF. F. M. BURDICK, Cornell.

"Exceptionally well arranged and reliably accurate."—DR. WILLIAM HOYNES, Notre Dame.

"Admirably done; happily supplements general with specific definitions and explanations from the most authoritative sources."
—PROF. GEORGE CHASE, New York.

"Of its many valuable features, not the least is the collection of cases construing particular terms."—PROF. W. T. BRANTLEY, Md.

"Excellent; I use it frequently, always with satisfaction."—CHANCELLOR E. MCCLAIN, Iowa.

"Comprehensive, thorough, practical."—The Green Bag.

"As a dictionary, without comparison; as a book of reference, unequalled."—Chicago Law Journal.

"The most accurate and complete dictionary."—Central Law Journal.

"The most thoroughly American, the most convenient, the most satisfactory."—Law Librarian.

"Our deliberate judgment is that it will largely supersede all other law dictionaries."—American Law Review.
